

Please consider the fact that a limit on the amount of ownership in a market is not a restriction on free speech but a protection of it. When large media corporations are allowed to dominate, the local independent voices are silenced. This is even more evident in the radio markets where syndication has silenced local programming. The airwaves are the property of the people not one for several conduits that will be, if we allow it, dominated by a few large corporations.